COVER

We understand that people are using more and more technology to do their jobs, stay connected and keep their businesses moving. With this in mind we continuously update our proposition to meet customers' ever-evolving needs. This is clear from both our enhanced policy coverage and property definition.

OUR eCOMPUTERS INSURANCE COVERAGE INCLUDES:

- Damage to static and portable computer equipment worldwide
- Additional expenditure including re-instatement of data and increased cost of working
- Virus and hacking cover in respect of loss or damage to computer hardware
- Full theft cover on computer equipment without forcible or violent entry or exit
- Cover for loss distortion corruption or erasure of data and programs, including licence agreements
- Residual breakdown cover on all other computer equipment
- Over temperature or change in temperature damage to computer equipment
- No minimum standard of security
- Security guard costs extension.

OUR WIDEST EVER COMPUTER EQUIPMENT PROPERTY DEFINITION

In addition to the usual desktop PCs, laptops and peripheral computer equipment you'd expect to see, our property definition now includes smart phones, tablet computers, portable sat navs, digital cameras and audio-visual equipment.
